

Corporate Heritage Marketing

ECTS : 6

Volume horaire : 36

Description du contenu de l'enseignement :

This course enables participants to develop the skills necessary to leverage the cultural and historical heritage of companies for the benefit of all stakeholders (employees, partners, customers...).

Throughout the course, various issues will be addressed, ranging from the protection of heritage to its promotion through a wide range of tools (products and brands, books and films, social media, exhibitions and museums, iconic locations, events, and more).

Numerous case studies and examples will be provided, including globally renowned brands such as Chanel or Michelin, as well as family businesses and heritage-based companies where the valorization of craftsmanship serves as a core strategic approach. This course is on Moodle.

Compétence à acquérir :

By the end of this course, students will have developed the skills to:

- Promote the enhancement of cultural and historical heritage within an organization.
- Develop a strategy for leveraging cultural and historical heritage.
- Anticipate the main challenges and difficulties in managing an organization's heritage.
- Assess the impact of a heritage management strategy.

Mode de contrôle des connaissances :

- Project: 30%
- Case studies: 30%
- Final exam: 40%

The numerical grade distribution will dictate the final grade. The passing grade for a course is 10/20.

Attendance

Attendance is mandatory. Students are expected to attend all classes, arrive on time, and stay for the entire session. Repeated absences or lateness may affect the final grade.

Class Participation

Active participation is encouraged, as it contributes to making classes more engaging and instructive. Students are expected to come prepared and contribute thoughtfully to discussions. When participation is part of the course assessment, it is evaluated based on the quality of contributions rather than their quantity.

Exam Policy

Students are not allowed to bring any materials into exams, except those explicitly authorized by the instructor. Unexcused absences from exams or failure to submit assigned cases will result in a grade of zero when calculating final averages. All exams must be submitted at the end of the examination period.

Communication and Grading

All questions or concerns regarding grading or course policies must follow the official procedures. No direct negotiation with instructors about grades or assessments is permitted.

Be aware of the rules in Université Paris Dauphine about plagiarism and cheating during exams. All work turned in for this course must be your own work, or that of your own group. Working as part of a group implies that you are an active participant and fully contributed to the output produced by that group.
