

Cross-Cultural Management

ECTS : 6

Volume horaire : 36

Description du contenu de l'enseignement :

Dauphine's international learning environment brings together students from diverse cultural and academic backgrounds, creating a classroom that mirrors today's globalized workplaces. In this course, students will explore how cultural differences shape interactions, decision-making, and organizational behavior, equipping them with the tools to work effectively across cultures. Through case studies, interactive discussions, and real-world applications, students will develop cultural awareness, communication strategies, and adaptability--essential skills for both teamwork and leadership in international settings. The course will also examine the role of digital culture in cross-border management and the influence of organizational and company culture on professional dynamics. This course offers a practical and reflective approach, enabling students to navigate and contribute to a multicultural world with confidence. This course aims to:

- Provide students with a foundational understanding of multicultural management and its relevance in international workplaces.
- Introduce key cultural frameworks that explain differences in communication, leadership, and teamwork.
- Foster awareness of how digital culture shapes interactions in multicultural teams.
- Equip students with practical skills for effective cross-cultural communication, conflict resolution, and negotiation.
- Explore the impact of organizational and company culture on management strategies.
- Prepare students to apply multicultural management principles in academic and professional settings.

Compétence à acquérir :

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Identify key cultural frameworks and their impact on organizational and team dynamics;
- Develop cultural intelligence to navigate and thrive in diverse professional environments;
- Apply intercultural communication and negotiation techniques in digital and in-person interactions;
- Analyze the influence of digital culture on global business and teamwork;
- Evaluate ethical dilemmas and corporate social responsibility in a multicultural context;
- Understand how organizational and company cultures shape management strategies;
- Engage in critical reflection on real-world multicultural management challenges.

Mode de contrôle des connaissances :

- To ensure an engaging and interactive learning experience, students will be evaluated through continuous assessment, combining individual and group work, practical exercises, and participatory activities throughout the semester.

- Class Participation & Engagement (15%) Active participation in discussions, group work, and interactive activities is essential. Students are expected to contribute thoughtfully and engage with diverse perspectives.
- Individual Assignments & Reflections (25%) Students will work on short written analyses, quizzes, or reflective papers after selected sessions to ensure comprehension and critical thinking.
- Group Case Studies & Workshops (30%) Students will collaborate on real-world cases and simulations, applying cross-cultural management frameworks to practical scenarios.
- Final Group Project & Presentation (30%) Development of a multicultural management strategy for a chosen company or context. Presented in the final session, demonstrating analytical depth, creativity, and teamwork. The numerical grade distribution will dictate the final grade. The passing grade for a course is 10/20.

Attendance Attendance is mandatory. Students are expected to attend all classes, arrive on time, and stay for the entire session. Repeated absences or lateness may affect the final grade.

Class Participation Active participation is encouraged, as it contributes to making classes more engaging and instructive. Students are expected to come prepared and contribute thoughtfully to discussions. When participation is part of the course assessment, it is evaluated based on the quality of contributions rather than their quantity.

Exam Policy Students are not allowed to bring any materials into exams, except those explicitly authorized by the instructor. Unexcused absences from exams or failure to submit assigned cases will result in a grade of zero when calculating final averages. All exams must be submitted at the end of the examination period.

Communication and Grading All questions or concerns regarding grading or course policies must follow the official procedures. No direct negotiation with instructors about grades or assessments is permitted. Be aware of the rules in Université Paris Dauphine about plagiarism and cheating during exams. All work turned in for this course must be your own work, or that of your own group. Working as part of a group implies that you are an active participant and fully contributed to the output produced by that group.
