

Fashion and materials in questions (II)

ECTS : 3

Description du contenu de l'enseignement :

The course is a follow-up to the series of lectures proposed during the first semester. It is built as a seminar that questions contemporary challenges of the fashion and textile industry from multiple angles. Lectures are led by experts from various disciplines, including fashion studies, history, law, and marketing, with a focus on workwear for the first part of the seminar.

An "Art thinking" closing workshop centered on the theme of "Improbable fashion" engages students with avant-garde artistic practices as a powerful way to question and reimagine traditional notions of fashion.

Compétence à acquérir :

Students develop their culture and understanding of transformations and innovations in the field of fashion and materials. The seminar is meant to nurture their reflection for their personal and collective projects.

Mode de contrôle des connaissances :

There is no grade awarded for this seminar. The validation is based on presence to all sessions.
