European human Rights

ECTS : 3

Langue du cours : Français

Volume horaire : 27

Description du contenu de l'enseignement :

This interactive course will introduce you to the legal frameworks governing human rights in Europe both within the Council of Europe and the European Union. It will focus on understanding and analysing key human rights and will introduce you to some of the pressing human rights challenges facing the European courts, like climate change and the human rights obligations of business. Finally, it will also encourage students to think critically about human rights and the European human rights system.

Compétences à acquérir :

- Understanding of the legal frameworks for the protection of human rights in Europe
- Understanding of key fundamental rights.
- Ability to analysis of pressing human rights issues and how they are being handled by the European courts.
- Ability to critically evaluate human rights and the limits of European human rights system.

Pré-requis obligatoires

Familiarise yourself with current human rights challenges within the European Legal Order.

Pré-requis recommandés

Listen to one or more of these podcasts onHuman Rights in the 21st Century.

Mode de contrôle des connaissances :

Continuous assessment: 50%

- Group presentation: 20%

- Coursework, 2,000 words: 30%

Final assessment: 50%

- Final written exam, 3 questions out of 6, 1,500 words each: 50%

Coefficient : 3.00

Bibliographie, lectures recommandées :

Janneke Gerards, General Principles of the European Convention on Human Rights(CUP 2023, 2nd ed)

Harris, O'Boyle, and Warbrick, Law of the European Convention on Human Rights(OUP 2023, 5th ed)

Jan Wouters and Michal Ovádek The European Union and Human Rights (OUP 2021)