Law and Susbtainibility

ECTS : 2

Langue du cours : Français

Volume horaire : 18

Description du contenu de l'enseignement :

This intentionally interactive course will provide you with a critical introduction to the role of law in promoting ecological sustainability. We will study international and translational legal frameworks, critique the concept of the sustainability, and consider pressing sustainability challenges like green washing, due diligence, climate change and the just transition.

Compétences à acquérir :

- Understand international and transnational landscape of sustainability
- Critically evaluate the concept of sustainability
- Be familiar with key international challenges around law and sustainability

Pré-requis obligatoires

Familiarise yourself with key policy debates concerning law and sustainability.

Pré-requis recommandés

Listen to one or all of the episodes ofThe Sustainable Law Podcast.

Mode de contrôle des connaissances :

Continuous assessment: 50%

- Group presentation: 20% (recorded)
- Coursework, 2,000 words: 30%

Final assessment: 50%

- Final written exam, 3 questions out of 6, 1,500 words each: 50%

Coefficient : 2.00

Bibliographie, lectures recommandées :

Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger and Damilola S. Olawuyi, Sustainable Development Law (OUP 2025, 2nded)