Internship

ECTS : 3

Description du contenu de l'enseignement :

The M2 104 Research in Finance receives a wealth of internship offers from companies and past Master's students, which helps students find the right internship every year. During the year, several meetings are organized with large financial institutions. The 104 also benefits from its large network of Alumnies and its linkedin group.

Compétence à acquérir :

The students of the M2 104 Research in Finance who are interested in a career in the finance industry can choose the short-term research option, that includes an short-term research master's thesis plus an internship.

The subject of the internship can be related to the subject of the Master's thesis, but it is not mandatory.

The length of the internship is a minimum of 3 months. Most of the time, it lasts 6 months or more.

The internship can not start before the end of the courses. Most of the time it starts in April and is carried out in a financial institution or in the finance department of a firm. The internship must be finished around mi December (the precise date is given every year by the administration.

Mode de contrôle des connaissances :

The internship is validated by D. Lautier. Its subject must be in line with the knowledge acquired by the students during the year.
