The Economic Press in English (Groupe 1)

ECTS : 3

Description du contenu de l'enseignement :

This class will look at how the economy is portrayed in English speaking media. The economic impact on society, politics and culture will be investigated through analysis and discussion of print, broadcast and online media outlets from across the English speaking world.

Compétence à acquérir :

- Students will learn to effectively communicate and summarise ideas and issues impacting the world today in English.
- Students will become familiar with and acquire specialist vocabulary related to the economy and society.
- Students will be able to effectively present their ideas and analysis of class materials with a high level of academic English.

Mode de contrôle des connaissances :

• In class presentations (50%)
• Final Exam (50%)

Bibliographie, lectures recommandées :

A familiarity with media outlets from Anglophone countries.

- The Guardian
- The New York Times
- The Washington Post
- The Economist
- BBC
- The Sydney Morning Herald
- Financial Times
- The Irish Times